How We Serve Community

Community Events Hosted by the BFNC

Westminster Community House History is Buffalo and American History.

The Westminster Settlement House, originally constructed in 1893 has been transformed into a community facility offering programs and services to assist individuals with overcoming life obstacles. The Westminster Community House offers on-site supportive services, a certified senior adult daycare program, a federally qualified healthcare center, an Evans Bank branch, a commercial kitchen, a beauty salon, and a community outreach space.

The original settlement house offered a home and services for East side immigrants impacted by the 1893 economic recession.

"The Settlement House model has been reimagined to meet residents where they are. The Westminster Community House is a "neighborhood house" that is open to provide an array of services to help community members.," stated Chandra Redfern, Chief Executive Officer, Buffalo Federation of Neighborhood Centers, Inc.

Our Foundation is in the Fruit Belt Community.

November 9, 2021, the New CEO, Chandra Redfern hosted a Community Conversation.

Chandra provided an overview of BFNC's services and asked the attendees to share their thoughts and visions about how to build a stronger Fruit Belt community.

Chandra Redfern recognized that there were several community organizations in the Fruit Belt but encouraged each group to work together to develop a plan to fill the needs and build a stronger community.

"We are stronger together."

– Chandra Redfern, BFNC CEO
