

HEALING TOGETHER:

BIPOC FAITH & COMMUNITY LEARNING SERIES

A collaborative initiative led by

BFNC

Buffalo Federation of Neighborhood Centers

together with

MENTAL HEALTH
AWARENESS MONTH

A free workshop for the faith community—

THE FAITH COMMUNITY ROLE OR RESPONSIBILITY: MENTAL HEALTH & TRAUMA IN COMMUNITIES OF COLOR

MAY 18, 2023 • 11AM – 2PM • LUNCH WILL BE PROVIDED
MT. OLIVE BAPTIST CHURCH • 701 EAST DELAVAN AVENUE, BUFFALO

WORKSHOP DETAILS:

This free intentional learning & community engagement opportunity is specifically for faith-based community leaders and members, grassroots leaders, behavioral health providers, volunteers and caregivers. It will provide resources and support in addressing mental wellness and trauma in communities of color. We have an unprecedented opportunity to address these topics differently, with freshly informed equity lenses at all levels. More details at the EventBrite link below.

BE INSPIRED BY:

Keynote Speaker,
Rev. Dan T. Butler
of Rochester, NY,
who serves as the senior pastor of
St. John Baptist Church of

Rochester. Rev. Butler is the Equity and Advocacy
Division Director of the Urban League of Rochester.

PANEL DISCUSSION – PANELISTS INCLUDE:

Pastor George
Nicholas

Evangelist
Lynne Parker

Rabbi Simcha
Weinstein

PLEASE RSVP BY MAY 15th:

You may register at this EventBrite link: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/622557806157>
Or email Hope Isom at: hisom@bfnc.org

FOR MORE
INFO.,
PLEASE VISIT

